

Outline for a two-day training module on Public-Private Partnerships (PPP) for Waste Management:

Day 1:

Session 1: Introduction to PPPs for Waste Management

Definition of PPPs for waste management
Importance of PPPs in waste management
Different types of PPP models

Session 2: Legal and Regulatory Frameworks for PPPs in Waste Management

Overview of legal and regulatory frameworks for PPPs in waste management
Role of governments and private sector in PPPs
Types of contracts and agreements

Session 3: Financial Models for PPPs in Waste Management

Overview of financial models for PPPs in waste management
Funding sources for PPPs
Risk allocation and mitigation strategies

Session 4: Project Development and Implementation for PPPs in Waste Management

Overview of project development and implementation for PPPs in waste management
Feasibility studies and project design
Procurement and contract management

Session 5: Case Studies

Successful PPP projects for waste management from around the world
Key strategies and outcomes

Day 2:

Session 6: PPP Partnerships and Stakeholder Management

Overview of PPP partnerships and stakeholder management
Identifying and engaging key stakeholders
Communication and conflict resolution strategies

Session 7: Performance Monitoring and Evaluation

Overview of performance monitoring and evaluation in PPPs for waste management
Key performance indicators (KPIs) and metrics
Continuous improvement strategies

Session 8: Community Participation and Engagement

Importance of community participation and engagement in PPPs for waste management
Strategies for involving communities in waste management initiatives
Benefits of community participation in PPPs for waste management

Session 9: Innovative Technologies for PPPs in Waste Management

Overview of innovative technologies for PPPs in waste management
Case studies of successful implementation of innovative technologies
Potential benefits and challenges

Session 10: Group Work

Participants will be divided into groups to develop a PPP project proposal for waste management

Session 11: Conclusion and Future Actions

Recap of key points
Discussion on next steps and how to apply the knowledge gained from the training

The training should also include site visits to successful PPP projects for waste management and discussions with experts to provide hands-on experience for the participants. Interactive activities, case studies, and group discussions should be included to encourage active participation and engagement of the participants.